Gary B. Nash

UCLA Professor Emeritus and Director of the National Center for History in the Schools

Tuesday, June 16, 2009
4 to 6 p.m.

Charles E. Young Research Library
Presentation Room

Author Gary Nash will discuss “A Tragic Betrayal in the New Nation” based on his recent book Friends of Liberty: Thomas Jefferson, Tadeusz Kościuszko, and Agrippa Hull: A Tale of Three Patriots, Two Revolutions, and a Tragic Betrayal of Freedom in the New Nation.

Nash joined the Department of History in 1966 and has remained at UCLA ever since. Among the more than twenty books he has written or edited, the most recent are The Unknown American Revolution: The Unruly Birth of Democracy and the Struggle to Create America (2005), The Forgotten Fifth: African Americans in the Age of Revolution (2006), and Friends of Liberty (2008).

Nash served as president of the Organization of American Historians in 1994-95 and co-chaired the National History Standards Project during 1992-96. He is an elected member of the Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, the Society of American Historians, and the American Antiquarian Society.
